Background & Experience

Nathan has worked in the insurance industry since 2015 and during that time he has built a specialty in working with financial planners to provide the best tax and wealth strategies to their clients.

In his free time Nathan serves on the advisory board of the Oak Project, a Christian mentoring program that Nathan helped start for young professionals wanting to grow in their career and faith. He also enjoys playing golf, guitar, and spending time with his wife and 7-month-old baby girl.
