Background & Experience

During his career, Steve has focused on creating a culture that was centered around clients, employees, and the local community. He has been a strong leader and advocate in his many endeavors in both his personal and professional life. He is the immediate past President of NAIFA-North Dakota, 2020 NAIFA Advisor of the Year, and in 2021, Advisor Today magazine honored Steve with the “Four Under 40” award, which recognizes the top 4 young financial advisors in the United States.

Steve is a 2008 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he studied business administration. He has been in financial services over the past 14 years, during which he has served as a financial advisor, insurance agency manager, wealth strategy consultant, and now as Vice President of Institutional Accounts with E4 Insurance Services in Fargo, ND. During his college years, Steve was two-time All-Conference quarterback of the Division I North Dakota State University football team. He led that team to victory over Big 10 rival University of Minnesota in 2007 and had a 20-2 record his final 2 years. He lives in Fargo with this wife and two sons.
