Winning Recipes will be included in the national winners' Amazing Scone Baking Race cookbook (available on Amazon)!

For your scone to be judged, you must drop off TWO sets of 6 scones (one dozen) when bringing in your entry!

- ❖ All products will be sampled by the Judges.
- ❖ All recipes become the property of Amazing Scone Baking Race.
- ❖ Products must be the work of the exhibitor. All entries may be baked by an amateur or professional baker.
- ❖ All entries must be baked at home from scratch and use King Arthur Flour.
- ❖ No commercial products may be exhibited. No commercial mixes will be allowed.
- ❖ All products should be covered and on a disposable container.
- ❖ Winning scones may be sold as a charitable donation.
- ❖ Products that require refrigeration are unacceptable.
- ❖ Bakers may enter as many scones as they wish as long as they provide 12 scones per recipe and a separate recipe page for each recipe entry. Six are for judging; six are for photos .
- ❖ Bring your scones to your local merchant sponsor (see online map) between 8:00 and 9:00 a.m. – Saturday, July 9, 2011.
- ❖ All entries will be assigned a number when delivered. Scone judging is done without knowledge as to who baked which scones.
- ❖ Entries must be accompanied by the recipe typed on a recipe card or an 8 1/2" x 11" paper, listing all ingredients and procedures used; name, address, phone and e-mail of entrant.
- ❖ Scones will be judged on appearance, texture, taste and ease of preparation,/clarity of recipe.
 - Taste (taste and aroma) 1-30 points
 - Originality, artistic flair 1-20 points
 - Ease of preparation /clarity of recipe 1-10 points
