

KEY LESSONS FROM THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT	Beatitude	Old Testament anticipation	Clashing worldly values	God's reward	How to develop this attitude
	Poor in spirit (5:3)	Isaiah 57:15	Pride and personal independence	Kingdom of heaven	James 4:7–
	Mourning (5:4)	Isaiah 61:1, 2	Happiness at any cost	Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:4)	Psalm 51 James 4:7–
	Meekness (5:5)	Psalm 37:5–11	Power	Inherit the earth	Matthew 11:27–30
	Righteousness (5:6)	Isaiah 11:4, 5; 42:1–4	Pursuing personal needs	Filled (satisfied)	John 16:5–7 Philippians 3:7–11
	Mercy (5:7)	Psalm 41:1	Strength without feeling	Be shown mercy	Ephesians 5
	Pure in heart (5:8)	Psalm 24:3, 4; 51:10	Deception is acceptable	See God	1 John 3:1–
	Peacemaker (5:9)	Isaiah 57:18, 19; 60:17	Personal peace is pursued without concern for the world's chaos	Be called sons of God	Romans 12: Hebrews 12:10, 11
	Persecuted (5:10)	Isaiah 52:13; 53:12	Weak commitments	Inherit the kingdom of heaven	2 Timothy 3: