TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“If you have faith
the size of a mustard seed,
you would say to
this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and
planted in the sea,’
and it would obey you.”

Luke 17:6

EXPRESSING REVERENCE IN OUR CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD OF GOD

During the readings, we are called to listen to the Word of God and to apply it to our lives. WE ARE TO STRIVE TO LET THE WORD CHANGE OUR LIVES! It is important to listen attentively --- carefully --- and actively to ALL the readings. It can also be useful to have read the readings to oneself before the beginning of Mass. It is recommended that, during the proclamation of the word during Mass, people listen to the lector and focus their attention to the lectern or pulpit from where the readings are proclaimed.

The Catholic LECTIONARY is the book from which the readings are proclaimed. The Sunday readings are proclaimed on a three year cycle. Currently, we are in cycle C. The first reading and the Gospel are usually intended to "connect" us to a single theme. The second reading, usually from a letter of St. Paul to the early churches, is meant to amplify how we are called to live the Christian life and sometimes connects with the other readings.

The homily is intended to give an explanation and a life application of the readings. Every priest tries to do his best! But the grace of God is given to "the listener" also. Instead of daydreaming or reading the parish bulletin or writing your check for the collection, one might reflect on how you would preach on the readings if you had the chance to do so.

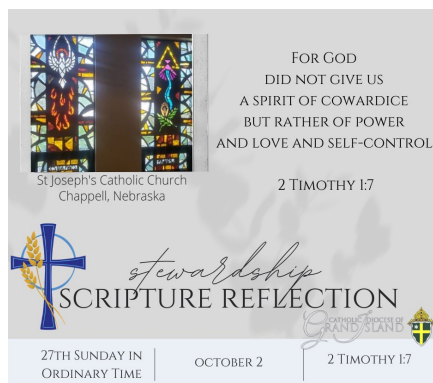

The Liturgy of the Word concludes with the Prayers of Intercession (also known as the Prayers of the Faithful). These intentions are principally for the general petitions of the worldwide Church. However, during this time, every person should include their personal prayers in silence.

The Catholic Daughters are having a Day of Prayer with their focus on Mary and the Rosary. Consider signing up – either on the parish website: www.howardcountycatholics.com or call the parish office.

Have a blessed week.

Next: Receiving Communion

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?
