Marriage, Divorce, and Nullity

We all know someone who has felt the effects of divorce. With that in mind, the staff of the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal will be presenting an informal workshop/information meeting on issues surrounding God’s plan for marriage and what happens when a marriage fails. Two workshops (same content) will be held at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, 518 State Street, Grand Island on March 10th at 4:00 p.m. and March 20th at 7:00 p.m.

The Purpose of the workshop are to recount God’s plan for marriage, what happens when that plan ends in divorce, and how the church can help through the healing ministry of nullity. Tribunal Staff will be available to answer any private questions following the workshop. For further information, call Marie, Kathy, or Rina at the Marriage Tribunal.

We the Sts. Peter & Paul Quilters are looking for your help!!! WE NEED QUILTERS!

We welcome any age or skill level; if you cannot quilt or you would like to learn, we have teachers that would love to teach you. Please consider coming Tuesdays from 1-4 p.m. if you are unable to attend during the day we are willing to teach after hours.

The Sts. Peter and Paul Knights of Columbus have a new Facebook page check it out. Search for “Knights of Columbus Sts. Peter and Paul Council 1918”
