NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

The Most Holy Trinity Sunday

June 4, 2023

Compassion! It is one of the qualities of Jesus that epitomizes his unique way of coming close to those who suffer, to those who are poor, and to those who are abandoned. The gospel today describes this quality of Jesus. It says: "At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned like a sheep without a shepherd." Motivated by his compassionate heart, he told his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Then he called his disciples by name to become the laborers in the harvest.

Do you know anyone suffering near you, or even in your family? Have you done something to comfort that person, or have you just disowned or abandoned him/her? Beyond your family, is there something you can do to announce the reign of God? More than ever, Jesus calls us to be kind-hearted and compassionate, to heal and to liberate. During our baptism our names were proclaimed; we were bathed with the water of eternal life; we were sealed by the Holy Spirit to make the Kingdom of God alive again in these exciting, struggling and trying times of the Church. People will know about God from Christ-like people, from Christians who live out the gospel in their lives. A disciple asked his master, "How come, whenever I see you, I see the Christ in you?" The master replied, "It is the Christ in me that recognizes the Christ in you." So, do what your heart is whispering you to accomplish. It is the compassionate heart of Jesus that guides your loving heart to make the Kingdom of God happen in our midst. Don't waste your potential. God needs you. He might be whispering these words in your ears now, "If you need a hand and there are hundred steps between us, you can take the first step to get near me and I will take the 99 steps to be there for you." So, what are you waiting for? Take the first step now...

Jr. Vincent L. Parsons

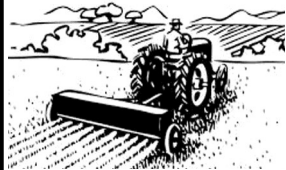

A Farmer's Prayer of Thanks

LORD, I am grateful that I am a farmer. I am glad to live close to the earth that You have made. I am happy to spend so much of my time in the open air, under the bright sun, the symbol of Your own light and justice. I am grateful for the rain and the freshness that it brings—the rain, a symbol of Your rich and undying blessings.

I am happy to cooperate with You in Your work of continuous creation, by growing food that men need to sustain life.

By YOUR almighty power You make grow the seeds I plant. You fill the earth with minerals. You send the rain and the sun, the wind and the snow—and the dry, hard seeds I plant are raised to soft, green life. You have given men machines that make the labor of the farmer much less burdensome. (...to be continued)
