

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

—Est. 1745—

St. John's Racial Reconciliation & Social Justice Ministry Presents:

ANXIOUS TO TALK ABOUT IT

Rev. Dr. Carolyn B. Helsel

Carolyn B. Helsel, PhD, is a professor of preaching at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, where she has taught since 2015. Helsel grew up in San Antonio, Texas, and has moved across the country for education and work, and in every setting, she noticed that the white people in her communities (including herself) remained silent on racism. As she became more aware of racism, beginning in seminary in the early 2000's, she felt called to help white communities better understand racism and deepen their capacity to hear the painful stories of others, and join people of color to work against racism.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2021
AT 2:00 PM

All are welcome:

In person at St. John's Episcopal Church in Huntington

on Zoom: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84102247511>

or Facebook Livestream: www.facebook.com/stjohns1745/live_videos

12 Prospect Street & Main Street, Huntington, New York 11743 ✦ (631) 427-1752
www.stjohns1745.org ✦ info@stjohnshuntington.org ✦ FOLLOW us on Facebook