"Pastoring starts at home. Before I taught the Word to the Church, I taught it to my family. That way we could be the examples." Bishop Harold E Stanley

Bishop Harold E. Stanley is the founder and Senior Pastor of Grace Christian Fellowship Ministry located in Houston Texas.

Bishop Stanley educational accomplishments include: Ph.D. in Biblical Counseling from Christian University of Southern Indiana; Doctorate in Theology from United Theological Seminary in Indiana; a Bachelor's and a Master's Degree in Christian Counseling from Christian Bible Institute and Seminary, in Houston, Texas, as well as a certification as a Master Alliterator. He is a Board Certified Christian Counselor and a Certified Christian Chaplain.

Bishop Stanley currently is the Dean of Admissions and Vice-Chairman of The Board of Regents for the Christian University of Southern Indiana. He previously served as Dean of Admissions and Professor at Christian Bible Institute & Seminary; served as the Chairman of the Board of Regents at Trinity Theological Seminary; on the board of the Global Christian Schools Network and the board of the Accrediting Commission for Biblical Higher Education.

Bishop Stanley is also the motivational speaker for the Department of Blind Services (DBS) in Houston, Texas and has spoken at the University of Houston Eye Institute. Because of his determination to go beyond what doctors said regarding his eye sight, he was chosen as the spokesperson representing Houston at the National Federation for Blindness and American Federation for Blindness in Atlanta, Georgia.

Bishop Stanley is married to Johnetta Y. Stanley and they have one daughter, Hannah.
