Rev. Johnny Ashe (Biography) A Journey of Faith and Leadership

Rev. Johnny Ashe, a proud native of Henderson, NC, embodies the spirit of dedication and service. Currently, he serves as a Chaplain with the U.S. Navy, providing spiritual guidance and support to Sailors, Marines, and Sentinels.

His journey in ministry began when he was licensed in 2010 and ordained in 2014 at Welcome Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Henderson, NC, under Pastor Saint J. Silver. His journey would next bring him to the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Apex, NC under Rev. Dr. Gary L. Brown, where he played a pivotal role in the Youth and Young Adult ministries. His commitment to nurturing young minds continued at the Mount Level Missionary Baptist Church in Durham, NC where he served as Youth Minister under the Rev. Dr. William C. Turner Jr.

Rev. Ashe holds a bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Master of Divinity from Campbell University Divinity School. Currently, he is furthering his theological studies as a PhD student at the Hampton University School of Religion.

Passionate about teaching, Rev. Ashe enjoys delving into the depths of theological education. When he's not immersed in books, you might find him lost in the rhythms of old school Jazz and R&B. And as a true North Carolinian, his loyalty to the Carolina Panthers runs deep.

He is married to the former Nicole Caviness, and his favorite Scripture is Psalm 144:1, "Blessed be The LORD my Rock who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle."
