

Clay County African American Legacy, Inc.
Cordially invites you to attend a dedication of the newest works of art at the

Garrison School Cultural Center

502 North Water Street
Liberty MO 64068

10:00 AM, Saturday October 28, 2017

Reception: Immediately following the dedication
Garrison School Cultural Center Assembly Room

The newest art installations are outdoor murals:

Water Street Mural

STONY THE ROAD WE TROD

Artist: Rodney "Lucky" Easterwood was trained in Boston, but has actively painted here in his native Kansas City area for over 30 years. His works are featured in several U.S. cities. They encourage community and cultural pride, highlight historical events and illustrate the beauty of everyday life.

Main Street Mural

SING A SONG OF THE HOPE

THE PRESENT HAS BROUGHT US

Artist: Dan Vanderhoof is an artist from the Central Valley of California, who moved to Kansas City a few years ago to study at the Illustration Academy. His work is characterized by bold color and classic sense of design.

For further information:

Mr. A.J. Byrd, 816-681-7918 or
Dr. Cecelia Robinson, 816-591-6199