• Why is MacGarvey Running So Hard this Early?

May 13, 2022, Statement by Daniel Cobble, Candidate for U.S. Representative (R), Louisville, Kentucky District 3

In her May 12, 2022 story on the candidates seeking to replace U.S. Representative John Yarmuth, Rachel Droze falsely reported that I had nothing to say to her questions.

During the interview, my first and only response to Ms. Droze was, “The Louisville media has failed the communities by not reporting on the candidates.” It’s that simple.

I informed Ms. Droze that this is my only response and she stated she would air the response. But she didn’t.

The Louisville media is negligent of their broadcast duties by not doing any stories on the candidates since the campaign season began five months ago. Only this week, just before the election, are they now doing 15-second sound bites. Apparently, this “unusual behavior” is due to me secretly polling #1 to win the Republican nomination on Tuesday, May 17. The media has avoided broadcasting the “Cobble name” at the expense of communities not learning about the candidates of which voters will be voting on Tuesday.

(These acts against the public interest are even more reasons we have to demand broadcast media to become “independent,” to divest of their “corporate masters.” Would Morgan MacGarvey support this change?)

Hence, I challenge Ms. Droze to play the video-taped interview for her viewers that we recorded on May 10.

Morgan
MacGarvey

I also believe Democrat Candidate Morgan MacGarvey is campaigning very hard in preparation for running against me. MacGarvey knows he cannot get past my “bread-n-butter” issues that neither “party leadership” is addressing. These include repairing the debt crisis that will fix the U.S. Postal Service, “$high rent” and high prices, and other crises, no fee public childcare, neighborhood voting precincts, etc. – Voters are weary of the empty promises that are now leading to collapsing the economy. In his “heart-of-hearts,” MacGarvey knows voters cannot afford to take a chance on him. Apparently that is why he is running so hard. He only has money to fight with, and nothing else. ☹

P.S. Voter Security. As in 2020, county & State authorities are using countywide early voting precincts to cheat in the 2022 elections. So I advise you to vote on May 17 at your neighborhood precinct, as required by §148 of the KY Constitution.

Petition-letter to Remove President Joe Biden

Today's Date _____

YES, I NOW understand that Ukraine is a major food supplier to the world. Yet President Biden and the far-left people in NATO have been slow to protect Ukraine. Now we are facing world food shortages with the deliberate destruction of the Ukraine breadbasket, an indirect threat to U.S. national security. I believe leaders such as Sen. Joe Manchin and Gov. Ron DeSantis want the best for America.

Wherefore, I support the immediate removal of President Biden by initiating an Emergency Constitutional Convention by the States.
